A wide-angle photograph of the Eiffel Tower in Paris, France, taken during a vibrant sunset. The tower stands centrally, its dark metal lattice structure silhouetted against a sky that transitions from a deep blue at the top to a bright orange and yellow near the horizon. A long, thin contrail from an aircraft stretches across the upper left portion of the sky. In the foreground, the Champ de Mars park is visible, featuring a large, rectangular reflecting pool that perfectly mirrors the tower and the colorful sky. The surrounding cityscape is bathed in the warm glow of the setting sun, with various buildings and trees visible in the distance. The overall atmosphere is serene and picturesque.
